A Three- Century Legacy of Healthcare

Long before Medicare or Medicaid, women and men religious of the local Catholic church in New Orleans ministered to the sick. Nearly 300 years ago – one year after their arrival in New Orleans from France in 1727 – the Ursuline Sisters undertook as their ministries education and the care of orphans. The Ursulines were the pioneers, followed by many other religious communities of women and men, who left their charitable mark on the community, especially in caring for the many children orphaned by the virulent epidemics of the 19th century. ## US Bishops Call for Special Moment of Prayer on Good Friday

Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles and president of the U.S.

Conference of Catholic Bishops has invited the faithful to join him in a moment of prayer on Good Friday (April 10 at 11 am CST) to pray the Litany of the Sacred Heart. Praying together as a nation, the bishops ask that we seek healing for all who are unwell, wisdom for those whose work is halting the spread of coronavirus, and strength for all God's children.

Catholic chaplains continue to comfort from afar

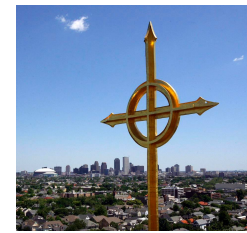

"This ministry is a ministry of presence," said Deacon Jeff Tully, Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic chaplaincy coordinator of hospital chaplains. "When you can't be present, you don't give up; you continue to pray and do everything you can. God is a gracious, merciful God. We rely on God. It's not about us or any of us; it's about God and the relationship that each of the patients has with God." Read the entire article.

Share a Prayer

The following was submitted by Joe Quinn:

GETHESEMANE by Grace E. Easley

He sought a place to pray and found,
Upon a slope outside of town,
An olive garden filled with trees,
On which there stirred a restless breeze.
How sad His loved ones never guessed,
The weight of anguish in His breast,
Nor heard His sighs, nor saw Him weep,
For watching not, they fell asleep.
Each one of us must near his share
Of that lone hour's vigil there.
But with it promise of a dawn,
Of blessed peace when night is gone.
Compared to Thine, dear Lord I see
How small my own Gethsemane.

Perhaps you have a treasured prayer or Bible verse that provides you comfort and strength. If so, please share and we will post it in the next newsletter! Let us know whether you'd like your name posted.

Catholic Fact of the Week:

The Big Bang theory was formulated by a Catholic Priest!

Father Georges Lemaitre and Belgian cosmologist (pictured with Einstein) was the first to propose that the expansion of the observable universe began with the explosion of a single particle at a definite point in time. His startling idea first appeared in scientific form in 1931. The theory, accepted by nearly all astronomers today, was a radical departure from scientific orthodoxy in the 1930s.

Clarion Herald Suspending Print Editions

Because no public Masses are being celebrated in the Archdiocese of New Orleans as the archdiocese takes precautions against the spread of the coronavirus, the Clarion Herald is temporarily suspending its print edition. A new Clarion Herald e-edition is available every Tuesday. Scroll down to click on it's link and the links of other great resources.
